

Safeguarding Policy

Name of School Yve Holistic Training

The school is committed to the safeguarding of vulnerable groups and will;

- Provide guidance on safeguarding children/vulnerable adults for both staff and students
- Provide guidance on conduct when working with vulnerable groups
- Provide information on issues such as child abuse* and legal obligations
- Vet staff and students working with vulnerable groups through CRB/SCRO
- Promote a responsible attitude to protecting vulnerable groups at all times
- Provide monitoring processes for the above

The school will ensure that its students

- Observe the school's safeguarding regulations
- Co-operate with others in keeping vulnerable groups safe
- Take care to avoid any distress to children and vulnerable adults and act with respect
- Report any violation of safeguarding to the tutor or another responsible person within the school
- Report any suspicion of abuse* to the tutor or another responsible person within the school

Abuse is classed as physical, emotional or sexual in nature CRB/SCRO – Criminal records Bureau, Scottish Criminal Records Office.

Those responsible within the school are:

Name: Yvonne Potter

Name: Sharon Tomasso

Yve Holistic Training agrees to comply with the appeals procedure as outlined above:

Signature Position Tutor Date: 09/01/19

Signature Position: Assessor Date: 09/01/19

Signature Position: IQA Date: 09/01/19